

Stones in his Pockets
Monday 15 - Saturday 20 April

Marie Jones' hysterically funny and thought-provoking comedy has won numerous awards including both the Olivier and Evening Standard Awards for Best New Comedy, as well as three Tony nominations on Broadway.

A big Hollywood film company descends on a small Irish village to make a blockbuster movie, but their romanticised idea of "Irish village life" isn't all it's cracked up to be. Add in a spoilt American starlet, an English director and the village old timer and you're guaranteed a great night's craic! all Don't miss your chance to see one of the most acclaimed plays ever to come out of Belfast!

"Has a rare theatrical kick... I envy those catching it for the first time"
