

We are looking for people like you to take part in a conversation about what you do in your spare time.

Take part in an open and casual chat where there are no right or wrong answers. We want to hear how you spent your free time before Covid and if things have changed for you during the pandemic.

Everyone is welcome to take part. We are also particularly interested to hear from people living in rural areas, disabled people and people from ethnic minorities.

Why should you take part?

Your opinion matters. This is an opportunity to help inform the planning of leisure and cultural activities across Northern Ireland.

It's free to take part.

1.5 hour online chat

Make your voice heard & have an impact on your community

How to take part?

This discussion is facilitated by thrive. We are a charity that works with arts, heritage and cultural organisations across Northern Ireland. We would love to meet you!

If you'd like to know more, feel free to get in touch with Lee Robb at lee.robbsky.com

We hope to see you soon!

This research is supported by the Arts Council of Northern Ireland

